

Laser Engineering, a division of the WEC Group, a Darwen based engineering company established for over 30 years and now one of the North Wests leading engineering, fabrication and laser cutting companies, is looking to recruit an enthusiastic and self motivated flat bed laser machine programmer to join the successful laser cutting division :

CNC Laser Machine Programmer

Ideal candidates should be able to:

- * Program Flat Bed Laser cutting machines using ToPs100 software package.
- * Upload .dxf, .dwg into software program & program machines to profile accordingly.
- * Fully understand technical drawings & draw and develop 2D components and for secondary processing i.e. press brake forming.
- * Work in Autocad
- * Experience of programming tube laser machines, Trumpf and Adige an advantage
- * Experience of sheet metal fabrication an advantage.

Hours of work Monday – Friday 8 am to 5pm

Rate of pay: Depending on Experience

In return as a growing company we can offer excellent rates of pay and long term career prospects