

WEC Group Ltd established for over 30 years and now one of the North Wests leading engineering, fabrication and machining companies, have the following available for their DARWEN site

CNC SETTER / OPERATORS TURNING

Required :-

Fanuc experience required.

Must be able to read and interpret engineering drawings.

Able to read a micrometer and vernier caliper.

Able to work to tight tolerances and deadlines.

Desirable :-

Ability to prove out new programs, set tooling and obtain first off.

Experience with driven tooling.

Ability to write basic programs at the machine.

Candidates must be flexible in their approach to working hours and also to working practices, available to do overtime when necessary and also carry out other duties when required. In return we offer good long term job prospects, the opportunity of overtime, a good bonus, training when required and possibility of progression within the group.

Hours of work –

1x nightshift 7pm – 5:15am

1x weekend days